Abstract:

ABSTRACT ANALYSIS OF WHY VOCABULARY IS IMPORTANT IN LEARNING A SECOND LANGUAGE Vocabulary is an essential part of learning a second language. A rich v enables a person to express their ideas accurately and concisely. By having a deep understanding of vocabulary items, learners are able to interact with both native and native speakers with confidence and ease. Furthermore, understanding the nuances behind a word can help a learner communicate effectively in both formal and in situations. Additionally, this also fosters an appreciation and understanding of cultural differences. Finally, having a solid understanding of vocabulary items develops language skills holistically, leading to improved fluency and more efficient learning of grammar rules. Thus, vocabulary is essential in learning a second language and integral part of any language learner's education.
